Children helping Children The Ginger Bread House Story

This coming Saturday, November 20th forty or so children from the ages of 4 to 14 will meet at Mim's Country Kitchen (Michelle Miller) from 1:00 to 3:00 PM. The Country Kitchen is located at 236 N. 4th Street. The purpose of this group is to decorate ginger bread houses which have been constructed by Doris Matyas and Tiffany Bowman.

The decorated houses will be on display from November 20th until December 4th at the Crop Circle, a scrapbooking business owned and operated by Tiffany. The Crop Circle is located at 237 N. 4th St.

On Saturday, December 4th at 1:00 PM the ginger bread houses will be auctioned by Mayor John Geddis at the Crop Circle. The proceeds will be donated to the "Food Pantry and Coats for Kids".

You are invited to participate in the public auction of the houses, you may see something you like and best of all you will be helping kids help kids.
