

The Historical Society of Toronto, Ohio
Fall Event Schedule 2010

Labor Day Weekend, September 4 and 5

Museum Open Saturday 10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Sunday 12:00 – 3:00 pm

Toronto Calendars will be available for purchase

Tuesday, September 14, 6:30 pm Riverview United Methodist Church

Panel Discussion – Knoxville, Ohio

Bill Bray, Panel Leader

Did you know there was a college in Knoxville? And a post office? A cabinet maker and even a hotel? Find out all about Knoxville from our knowledgeable panel.

Saturday, September 25, 12:30 – 3:30

Museum Open

Saturday, October 9, 11:00 am at the Main Street Museum

“Follow the Yellow Creek Road”

Self-Guided Fall Leaf Tour

Our very popular Driving Tour against a backdrop of beautiful fall leaves. We changed a few things and added some sites, so don't miss this event!

Tuesday, October 12, 6:30 pm, Riverview United Methodist Church

Gordon Grafton tells the story of McCullough's Children's Home

Hear stories of some of the children who grew up in the Home which was located at the junction of Routes 7 and 213 from 1903 to 1958. A chilling account and a very important part of Jefferson County's history.

Tuesday, November 9, 2010, 6:30 pm, Riverview United Methodist Church

Last Meeting of the Year: Election of Trustees

Plans for 2011 Meetings/Programs to be discussed.

The Public is welcomed at all events. Admissions are by donation.

All proceeds used for Museum and Historical Society projects.

The Historical Society of Toronto, Ohio

P O Box 163

Toronto, Ohio 43964